Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Randy Kutz was born in Fargo, North Dakota, on September 9, 1955, to Dale and Marilyn Kutz, and spent his formative years in Highmore, South Dakota, where he attended school and graduated in 1973, prior to attending Northern State University, completing his degree in 1978; and,

Whereas, Randy and wife, Penny, were married on February 17, 1985, and enjoy the lives of their children, Joshua Enright and Briana Kutz, and being grandparents to Logen Joshua Enright; and,

Whereas, Randy began working for the South Dakota Department of Revenue, Audits Division, in May 1978, as a sales tax auditor, and has continued with that office through his current position as Audit Manager for the Rapid City office; and,

Whereas, Randy has consistently been known as one of the department's hardest working and most well respected employees for his invaluable historical perspective, attention to detail, and commitment to excellence, no matter what the task; and,

Whereas, Randy has impressed his colleagues and friends throughout the years on a personal level with his devotion to family, the world's greatest game of golf, and his perseverance in restoring the 1951 Ford pickup that sat at this father's station in Highmore during the years Randy worked there as a young man; and,

Whereas, Randy has admirably served the state of South Dakota for 29 years, impressing colleagues with his ability to adapt to numerous new laws and a number of new bosses while continuing to provide invaluable service to the Audits Division; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the contributions of this employee to the state of South Dakota for his many years of employment with state government:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 21, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, family, and friends in offering these congratulations.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
